Youth Wind Band Workshop

Saturday 19th June 2021

1.30pm - 5.30pm at the Albert Hall, Nottingham

(NB All covid regulations in place at the time will be adhered to)

Come and experience windband playing for young woodwind, brass and percussion players. Two windbands for players of all abilities (grade 2 – 8+), conducted by MfE's Wind Band Animateur Gill Henshaw. The Junior band (for players grade 2 – 5) will be working on pieces such as Orion by Jan Van der Roost and Wild Westerns arranged by Michael Story. The Senior band (players above grade 5) will be playing Blue Ridge Summit by Bryan Kidd and a medley of classic rock; Queen in Concert arranged by Jay Bocook.

PDFs of the music will be emailed out beforehand so you can have a look at the music, proper copies will be provided on the day.

Principal conductor – Gill Henshaw

Gill is the principal wind band animateur for Music for Everyone, conducting Nottingham Youth Band, and delivering and developing opportunities for young and adult wind players. Gill is an accomplished performer on clarinet, as Orchestra Leader of Nottingham Symphonic Wind Orchestra, and in the Nottingham Philharmonic Orchestra.
